Turning Year ... Each meditation begins with a quote from some source of Celtic mythology or scholarship, or writing inspired by Celtic influences which reflects the theme for the day. The short meditation follows, exploring the theme more carefully. Finally, an "invitation" or instruction of some kind concludes the reading. Caitlin Matthews, The Celtic Spirit: Daily Meditations for ... This little book is an invitation, through the mode of a bardic-contemplative tool, to slow down each day, to meditate on some feature of the vast Celtic spiritual traditions, giving the reader the unmistakable sense that the Celtic spirit is not quarantined to some ancient, inaccessible past, but rather a living stream of inspiration that survives today.
